

Niuafou'ou (Tonga) (1983-)

A volcanic rim island of six square miles, Niuafou'ou is part of the kingdom of Tonga, located in the southern Pacific Ocean between Fiji and Samoa, 400 miles north of the Tongatapu island group. The island is better known as Tin Can Island, famed for the pickup and delivery of mail in sealed cans by swimmers and canoes to and from ships waiting offshore in the 1930s and '40s. Niuafou'ou began to issue its own stamps in mid-1983.
