PRESIDENTS OF THE UNITED STATES

C231

The design for the American Presidency is inspired by the Great Seal of the United States. The design is a composite of the portraits of all 43 Presidents in the Marshall Islands to date.

The denomination of each stamp corresponds to the number of years the President served in the Marshall Islands to date.

The first and last parts of each President's name are printed on the stamps to identify them.

Engravings: Gene Jarvis and Michael Halbert

Amelia Earhart carried mail throughout her many flights around the world. On her 1937 flight around the world, Earhart carried souvenir covers, which collectors had ordered ahead of her journey. She added stamps and postmarks along the route. On July 2nd, her plane disappeared and went down somewhere in the South Pacific.
