

Dominican Republic

(1865-)

A republic occupying the eastern two-thirds of the island of Hispaniola in the West Indies. In 1861-65, the republic was occupied by Spain. The first stamps used in the country were Spanish colonial issues for Cuba and Puerto Rico. After the Spanish withdrawal, the Dominican Republic began issuing its own stamps. From 1916 to 1922, the country was under U.S. military administration. In 1930, Gen. Rafael Trujillo Molina came to power until his assassination in 1961.
